Common Mistake.

"What's your opinion of Bonmaster?" "Well, when I first met him he impressed me as being a leader of men, a 10,000-volt human dynamo, a clarion-voiced czar who would brook no opposition; but when I met him the second time, in his office, I sized him up for a pusillanimous mouse." "Where did you meet him the first time?" "On the telephone."

Famous Sons of Large Families.

Sir Walter Scott was a seventh son. John Wesley was one of nineteen children. Alfred Tennyson was the third of seven sons.

Just So.

Mrs. Enpeck—"The president wants to choose his own successor." Enpeck—"Yes; and I would like to choose yours."

Welcome Each Rebuff.

It is said that unless the clay is well pounded, no pitcher can be made. This seems to be true in a certain sense of the making of life. When we think how many blows one is quite certain to have, and how many are students in the "University of Hard Knocks," we realize that these hard things must be part of the process of making us fit for use.

JOY FOR THE ANTIQUARIAN

Recent Discoveries in Pennsylvania Mound Promise to Add Rich Additions to Indian Lore.

Prof. A. B. Skinner of the American Indian museum, Prof. W. K. Morehead of Phillips Andover academy, and Dr. George Donohue, Pennsylvania state historian, who have been conducting researches along the valley of the Susquehanna, have uncovered an Indian mound at Tioga Point, on the upper portion of Queen Esther's flats, on what is known as the Murray farm, a short distance from Sayre, Pa., which promises rich additions to Indian lore. In the mound uncovered were found the bones of 68 men, which are believed to have been buried 700 years ago. The average height of these men was seven feet, while many were much taller. Further evidence of their gigantic size was found in large celts or axes hewed from stone and buried in the grave. On some of the skulls, two inches above the perfectly formed forehead, were protuberances of bone. Members of the expedition say that it is the first discovery of its kind on record and a valuable contribution to the history of the early races. The skull and a few bones found in one grave were sent to the American Indian museum.

"Mrs. L. P. Duke, 655 O'Neal St., Hopkinsville, says: 'I had pains across my back and sides, as well as other trouble caused by weak kidneys. A box of Doan's Kidney Pills promptly cured me and since then I have had no further need of a kidney medicine.'"

A Slight Matter.

"I don't see you at Miss Golder's receptions any more, old man."

"No, she and I had a little difference of opinion."

"Nothing serious, I hope."

"Oh, no; only I thought I was the man she ought to marry and she thought I wasn't, that's all."

Doan's Regulets are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c and 50c. At all drug stores.—Advertisement.

Describing the Callers.

We had a friend, his wife and his mother-in-law call on us. My husband was upstairs dressing. When our little son went upstairs his father asked him who had called and he replied: "A papa and two mammas."—Chicago Tribune.
